American Winter: An Economic Justice Film

October 14, 2013, 6:30 - 8:30 pm,
Bing Crosby Theater, 901 W. Sprague

Please join us for a special one-time screening of American Winter. The screening is co-sponsored by: Center for Justice, Peace and Justice Action League, Spokane Alliance, Unitarian Universalist Church of Spokane, and Washington Community Action Network. The screening is free, with a $10 suggested donation to benefit Spokane social support services.

American Winter is a documentary feature film that follows the personal stories of eight families struggling in the wake of the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression. The film presents an intimate snapshot of the state of the economy as it is playing out in the lives of American families, and highlights the human impact of budget cuts to social services, a shrinking middle class, and the fracturing of the American Dream.
