

Chertok Speaker Series presents

KATHLEEN BELEW

A Reckoning: White Power After the Capitol Insurrection

Monday April 19 at 1-2:00

Keynote Address with Kathleen Belew

<https://ewu.zoom.us/j/95217213684>

Thursday April 22 at 1-2:30

Book Talk with Kathleen Belew, author of *Bring The War Home

<https://ewu.zoom.us/j/96294878373>

Tuesday April 20 at 1-2:30

Panel of Professors on Challenging Racism & White
Supremacy in the Classroom

<https://ewu.zoom.us/j/91984508542>

Moderator: Ann Le Bar, EWU,

Panelists:

Katie Clemons, Sociology Instructor,
Spokane Falls Community College

Alex Mikinaak, Instructor, American Indian
Studies, Eastern Washington University

Okera Nsombi, Assistant Professor, Africana
Studies, Eastern Washington University

Judy Rohrer, Assistant Professor, Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies, Eastern Washington University

Angela Schwendiman, Senior Lecturer,
Africana Studies, and Director of the Faculty
Commons, Eastern Washington University

Wednesday April 21 at 1-2:30

Panel of Local Activists on Challenging Racism & White
Supremacy in the Community

<https://ewu.zoom.us/j/92960769483>

Moderator: Dr. Joan Braune, Gonzaga University

Panelists:

Tamar Malino, Rabbi, Temple
Beth Shalom in Spokane

Liz Moore, Director, Peace and Justice
Action League of Spokane

Anwar Peace, Spokane Human Rights Commissioner

Ping Ping, Instructor Sociology,
Spokane Falls Community College

Tony Stewart, Kootenai County Task
Force on Human Rights

Sponsored by:

College of Social Sciences, Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies,
Jeffers Chertok Memorial Endowed Professorship

College of Social Sciences